Among the complaints which have been made to the department, it is is easy. said, is one that ugens of the trust go to the farmers at certain seasons of the year and offer the trust's price for cat-If this price is refused, the trust, it is charged, by means of its power with the railroads, holds up the farm-ers' supply of cattle feed, thus compel-ling the dealer to sell the animals et whatever ligure the combine desires to

We have gone into the investigation 2 2.53 First 16 2.55 deeply, said an officer of the department, and when we are through there of a.m. 24 5.55 is not likely to be much left worth investigating. The latest phase of the probing is aimed at retailers and small wholesale men who have been accused of raising their price at the slightest provocation and putting the blame on

"We have found that the buyers of the packers are speculating, cornering markets and doing other things that border on the illegal. So far however, we have been unable to convict anyone of controlling the prices of the whole country or manipulating them for the benefit of the so-called trust,"
